Local government units (LGUs) derive their revenues from local and external sources. Local sources include tax revenues from the real property tax and the business tax, and non-tax revenues from fees and charges, receipts from government business operations and proceeds from sale of assets. External sources, on the other hand, include the Internal Revenue Allotment (IRA) and other shares from special laws, grants and aids and borrowings.

I. TAXING POWERS OF LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

A. Taxes on Real Property

a. Basic Real Property Tax

The real property tax (RPT) is an ad valorem tax on real properties such as lands, buildings, and other improvements, and machineries imposed by provinces, cities and municipalities within the Metropolitan Manila Area (MMA), at the following rates:372

---

371 Book II, Title One of RA 7160, otherwise known as the “Local Government Code of 1991”.

372 Section 233, supra.
Chapter XI

Local Taxes

Provinces - Not exceeding 1% of the assessed value of the real property; and

Cities or Municipalities within the MMA - Not exceeding 2% of the assessed value of the real property

The RPT is based on the assessed value which is a certain percentage of the market value of the real property. The assessed value is arrived at upon application of the assessment levels to the market value of the property. The assessment levels are fixed by ordinance of the local Sanggunian depending on the actual use of the property, at rates not exceeding the following:373

(1) Lands

Exemptions: The following are exempted from payment of the RPT: 374

- Real property owned by the Republic of the Philippines or any of its political subdivisions, except when the beneficial use thereof has been granted, for consideration or otherwise, to a taxable person;

- Charitable institutions, churches, parsonages, or convents appurtenant thereto, mosques, non-profit or religious cemeteries, and all lands, buildings, and improvements actually, directly, and exclusively used for religious, charitable or educational purposes;

- All machineries and equipment that are actually, directly and exclusively used by local water districts and government-owned or–controlled corporations (GOCCs) engaged in the supply and distribution of water and/or generation and transmission of electric power;

- All real property owned by duly registered cooperatives as provided for under RA 6938; and

- Machinery and equipment used for pollution control and environment protection.

Except as provided in the LGC, any exemption from the payment of RPT previously granted to or presently enjoyed by, all persons, whether natural or juridical, including all GOCCs were withdrawn upon the effectivity of the LGC.

374 Section 234, supra.
b. Special Levies on Real Property

(1) Special Education Fund Tax\(^{375}\)

In addition to the basic RPT, a province or city, or a municipality within the MMA may levy and collect an annual tax of 1% on the assessed value of real property which shall be in addition to the basic RPT. The proceeds thereof shall exclusively accrue to the Special Education Fund (SEF) to support public education.

(2) Idle Lands Tax\(^{376}\)

A province or city, or a municipality within the MMA may levy an annual tax on idle lands at a rate not exceeding 5% of the assessed value of the property which shall be in addition to the basic RPT.

- Coverage\(^{377}\)

  (a) Agricultural lands, more than one (1) hectare in area, suitable for cultivation, dairying, inland fishery, and other agricultural uses, one-half (1/2) of which remain uncultivated or unimproved. Not considered as idle lands are (i) agricultural lands planted to permanent or perennial crops with at least fifty (50) trees to a hectare, and (ii) lands actually used for grazing purposes.

  (b) Lands, other than agricultural, located in a city or municipality more than one thousand (1,000) square meters in area, one-half of which remain unutilized or unimproved.

Regardless of land area, the tax shall likewise apply to residential lots in subdivisions duly approved by proper authorities, the ownership of which has been transferred to individual owners, who shall be liable for the additional tax.

- Exemption\(^{378}\)

The LGU may exempt idle lands from the additional levy by reason of force majeure, civil disturbance, natural calamity or any cause or circumstance which physically or legally prevents the owner of the property or person having legal interest therein from improving, utilizing or cultivating the same.

(3) Special Levy\(^{379}\)

A province, city or municipality may impose a special levy on the lands within its territorial jurisdiction specially benefitted by public works projects or improvements funded by the LGU concerned. The special levy shall not exceed 60% of the actual cost of such projects and improvements, including the costs of acquiring land and such other real property in connection therewith.

The special levy shall not apply to lands exempt from basic RPT and the remainder of the land portions of which have been donated to the LGU concerned for the construction of such projects or improvements.
